

Are libraries threatened or do they have a bright future? How can we see libraries with new eyes - or can we? What kind of library services citizens need today? Meet Maija Berndtson after her presentation with visions about the future of libraries and with practical examples of new library services. Discuss, debate and ask about her ideas and the services she presented. Or share your own ideas with your colleagues and Maija.